CAPITAL CITY "HASH."

By Johnny-Get-Your-Gun.

Under the "Simmon Tree."

That is where Taylor Hockensmith was—on the wooded hill-top, with the autumn leaves turning and the grapevine clinging to the spreading branches, when a little bird came and whispered in his ear to send some of those rich, ripe persimmons and grapes he was gathering, to the writer of the random lines. Acting on the hint, and prompted by the big, generous heart that fills his breast, a box filled with ripe wild grapes and delicious persimmons, came and bid us luxuriate—

Oh, he's no fauce fellow,
No legendary myth,
But true as gold is yellow
Is Taylor Hockensmith.

Who originated the expression, "It beats all creation and Tom Walker?" It has been in use more than 50 years.

Ben Butler, in his debate with Sunet Cox, first used the words "Shooofly, don't bother me!"

Rev. Robt. J. Breckinridge, D. D., the celebrated Presbyterian divine, was a hustling stump speaker in early life, and first made use of the phrase, "No more chance than a boatal bull in fly time."

Jim Jewell, of Lexington, made politically historic the expression "Politics is hell."

Fitzhugh, of Texas, first used the words "Bigger man than old Grant."

Capt. Bob Collins coined the word "Sphinx," and B. L. D. Guffy introduced the word "Sap-in-paw." The first meant "too big for a monkey and too little for a man," and the last—well—ask B. L. D. and he will tell you.

The Democratic Convention that assembled on Capital Square, when Cerve Gordo Williams was a candidate for Governor, was riotous, tumultuous and noisy. Every speaker was hooted at and yelled down. Finally Col. G. W. Craddock was asked to stay the tumult. Taking the stand, he attempted to speak. The crowd cat-called, raved and shouted. Craddock stood unmoved. After making several futile attempts to be heard, he raised his voice to its highest pitch and in stentorian tones shouted, "Fellow-citizens, Hoodlums and S—of—h—s!" The quaint appeal had its effect. The crowd laughed, the noise subsided and quiet was restored. Craddock knew his audience.

ear, abruptly said: "Please shut that door, young man!" Later, as he went up street, Crutcher claimed that he was the only man in town that Mr. Cass had spoken to. But he did not tell how and why.

The old Sand Lotters Club that gave a fish fry at Macey's Bend, and afterwards paid twenty-five dollars for half a can of oysters and a piece of coon at a restaurant on Main street, are passing away. Mangum, Weitzel, Luscher, Frazier and Grant are among those who have crossed the divide.

In the long bottom, between the farms of Chas. O'Hara and that now owned by John T. Hockensmith, a race track was once laid out and famous races run, in which the noted horse, Gray Eagle, took part. Henry Clay was one of the many spectators.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity is Here, Backed by Frankfort Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read Frankfort endorsement. Read the statements of Frankfort citizens.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it:

Mrs. Amanda Dean, of 18 Taylor Avenue, wife of J. T. Dean, boatman, says: "While I did not personally use Doan's Kidney Pills I can highly recommend them for the great relief they afforded my eldest daughter, who has always suffered more or less from a weak back ever since a child. On account of this condition it was almost impossible for her at times to lift anything. Accompanying this was a difficulty with the kidneys which was very annoying and distressing. I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them for her at J. W. Gayle's drug store. She took them as directed and they helped her in every way. Her back felt very much better and stronger and the difficulty with the kidney secretion was much improved. My youngest daughter complained a great deal of her back hurting her too. I gave her Doan's Kidney Pills and the results in her case, as well, were most satisfactory."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NATURAL CURIOSITY.

Aunt Ogie Harris, a well known colored woman, brought to our office, on Saturday, a natural curiosity in the shape of a hen egg, which, at the small end, had well-defined letter C, which stood up almost a sixteenth of an inch above the general surface. It certainly was a curiosity.

IS THE MOON INHABITED.

Col. J. N. Crutcher, the Alcalde of the West End, was claimed to have been the only man in Frankfort whom Lewis Cass, the famous statesman, spoke to when returning from acting as pallbearer at the funeral of Henry Clay. It happened this way. As the train, as passing Barstow's corner, Mr. Crutcher, then a young man, leaped on the platform and entered the car to see the people and the distinguished personage. He inadvertently left the car door open. Mr. Cass, who was in the LETTER FROM CUBA.

United States Ship Louisiana, Havana, Cuba, Sept. 30, 1903.
Editor Roundabout:

As I have a little leisure time to-day, I will proceed to write you and explain, to the best of my ability, the exact situation in Cuba at present. Perhaps you can use it in your paper, if so I will be glad.

At the last election there was a chain of fraud almost similar to the Groebel affair, and discontent, growing more and more pronounced, was at last brought to a climax by the President ordering the arrest of Senators of the Moderate party. Immediately following their imprisonment, there was an uprising or rebellion which, growing more and more serious, at last was in possession of almost all of Cuba except Havana, and had the city strongly surrounded and were about to take possession upon our arrival. Owing to the fact that it was almost impossible for the Government to raise troops notwithstanding the fact they were offering $2.50 a day for private soldiers, the largest pay of any enlisted soldier in the world. Immediately upon reaching here the Mediation Committee, appointed by President Roosevelt, called for a cessation of hostilities or a truce, and prepared to hear all reports bearing on the difficulty by both parties, also caused the temporary release of the imprisoned Senators and heard their version of the trouble. After sifted the evidence, they rendered a decision to which Liberals (or Government) refused to comply. Palma has resigned, and at present the city of Havana is occupied by American sailors and marines, and every port of Cuba has one or more American ships in harbor, and all property is guarded by soldiers. The aspect at present is very serious, and may prove a source of much expense and life to the United States. There is now a large number of the American battleships in Havana harbor and troops are being rapidly rushed to the front. There has been no loss to us so far, but four or five sailors have been shot by unknown parties in Havana.

I remain yours sincerely,
MILTON N. CULTER,
Ship Fitter, 2d Class, U. S. S.
Louisiana, Care Postmaster N.
Y. City.

COON HUNTING.

The officers of the English squadron prepared for their recent visit to this country by an exhaustive study of so-called American slang, that they might enjoy that "delightful American humor" over which the English have recently become so enthusiastic.

During their stay in Annapolis a coon hunt was arranged for their benefit, the officer in charge explaining to them that it was a sport highly thought of by natives of the Southern States.

As they rode along one of the Englishmen remarked: "You hunt these coons with dogs, I think?"

His host assented and the Englishmen continued: "They are found in the woods and are often caught in trees, aren't they?"

"They are," replied the American; "but how do you come to know so much about coon-hunting?"

"Oh," said the visitor, with an air of conscious pride, "I've read 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' you know, and all those articles that have come out in the papers lately, but to tell the truth, I didn't think it was allowed by the authorities, no matter what the nigger had done." —Lippincott's.

When the tip of a dog's nose is cold and moist, that dog is not sick. A feverish dry nose means sickness with a dog. And so with the human lins. Dry, cracked and colorless lips mean feverishness, and are as well ill appearing. To have beautiful velvet-like lips, apply at bedtime a coating of Dr. Shoop's Green Salve. A REPEATER.

John Weaver, the reform mayor of Philadelphia, was recently congratulated by a delegation of Virginians on the clean administration that he has given to the paper City. In the course of his reply, Mayor Weaver said:

I am glad to tell you that things with us have improved, e. g., for instance, the matter of elections. A Philadelphian, some years ago was running for a small office, and on election day he went from poll to poll, cheering his supporters on.

"As he left in certain poll a shabby individual approached and shook him by the hand.

"I trust, sir," said the candidate, that you are one of my supporters?"

"One?" chuckled the shabby individual, "Why, bless your heart, I'm seven of 'em."

DEPENDS ON THE LOCATION.

"It isn't true," argued the passenger with the skull cap, "that studying for the ministry unfits a man for a business career. Sometimes it has just the opposite effect."

"How, for instance?" asked the passenger with the flashy waistcoat.

"Well, a cousin of mine took a theological course several years ago, became a preacher, went straight into business, and made a success of it right from the start. Hadn't a cent of capital, either."

"What's his business?"

"The marrying business." Just then the engines stopped, the band on board began playing Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," and presently the boat scraped the dock at St. Joe.—Chicago Tribune.

PROFLANITY ALLOWED FOR.

If there was anything the late Senator Hoar disliked more than did another it was profanity.

The story is told how much shocked the venerable Senator would be by the inflammatory interjection of a certain politician with whom he frequently was compelled to confer. But on all such occasions he would refrain from cursing the culprit except in the mildest manner.

One day when the politician came to the Senator's committee-room on a subject of considerable importance, Mr. Hoar indicated a seat to him, and remarked:

"Now, Mr. Blank, before we enter upon a discussion of this question, we shall assume that everybody and everything is damned. Then we can talk it over amicably."

"I trust, sir," said the candi-

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON BY CITIZENS AT NOVEMBER ELECTION.

The following is the constitutional amendment to be voted on at the November election. As it is of great importance, and as the voters generally have not so far considered the matter, the provision is well worth careful reading:

An Act relating to amendment of section 145 of the Constitution, relating to suffrage and elections.

It is enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

That upon the concurrence of three-fifths of all the members elected to each house, the yeas and nays being taken thereon and entered in full in their respective journals, section 145 of the Constitution of Kentucky be, and it is, amended by adding a fourth paragraph to said section containing the following words, reading:

"4. Persons who have not, at least sixty days before the election at which they offer to vote, paid in full all State, county, municipal, district and school taxes due by them for the year previous to the one in which they offer to vote."

That section 145 of the Constitution of Kentucky relating to suffrage and elections, be amended to read as follows:

"4. Every male citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one years who has resided in the State one year and the county six months, or the precinct in which he offers to vote sixty days next preceding the election, shall be a voter in said precinct and not elsewhere, but the following persons are excepted and shall not have the right to vote:

"1. Persons convicted in any court of competent jurisdiction of treason or felony or bribery in an election, or of such high misdemeanor as the General Assembly may declare from the right of suffrage; but persons hereafter so convicted and serving their civil rights by executive pardon.

"2. Persons who at the time of the election are in confinement under the judgment of a court for some penal offense.

"3. Idiots and insane persons.

"4. Persons who have not, at least sixty days before the election at which they offer to vote, paid in full all State, county, municipal, district and school taxes due by them for the year previous to the one in which they offer to vote."

FRANKFORT, OCT. 13, 1906.

DEATH OF MARCUS A. JONES, SR.

On Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Mr. Marcus A. Jones, died very suddenly, at his home on Ewing street, South Side, aged 65 years.

Mr. Jones came to this city when a young man from Carroll county. When first here he was in the employ of the late Mr. John Haly.

Later on, he formed a partnership in the machine business with his brothers, the firm being known as Jones Bros., and their shop was located on Broadway street. The firm only retired from business last year.

For a number of years Mr. Jones has been a great sufferer from rheumatism, and this caused his death.

He was up and about the streets, attending to business until the latter part of last week, even Saturday supervised some changes in the building formerly used as a machine shop.

He was a devoted member of the Methodist Church, and for years was a member of the choir of that church.

Owing to ill health he had not been active in church affairs for sometime.

In early manhood he was married to Miss Sarah Williams, a daughter of Mr. M. H. P. Williams, Sr., and a sister of Judge B. G. Williams.

By this union five sons (Charles and Ben Jones, of Louisville; Ralph and Chester Jones, of Indianapolis; and Marcus A. Jones, Jr., of Corbett, Wyoming) and one daughter (Mrs. H. C. McFee, of this city,) were given them, who, together with his devoted wife and two brothers, survive him.

He was an upright, honest man, and was always a modest and valuable citizen.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. O. A. Vaught, of the Methodist Church, on Tuesday morning, and the remains were laid away in our cemetery.

Worry

Almost Unnerved Me
—Heart Pains.

Short of Breath,
Faint and Languid.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

It has been five years since I was cured of heart trouble by your Heart Cure and Nervine, and just as sound as a child. I had been suffering with my heart. Breathing had become short and difficult at times, short sharp pains about the heart, sometimes pain in the lungs, a fluttering was what made me feel faint and languid. The least exertion or mental worry would almost unnerve me. I took Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine all the time, and after taking it many remedies prescribed by physicians without obtaining relief, I was induced to give your product a trial. I was relieved in a few days, and after taking three or four bottles all symptoms were removed and have never since been subject to return.—REV. Geo. W. Atchison, Cincinnati, Va.

There are many symptoms of heart disease, which so closely resemble those of more common nervous disorders as to frequently mislead the physician. The following list of heart trouble symptoms, the kidneys, liver, lungs become so affected. Again the symptoms may be those of weakened nerves, as tiredness, faintness, languor, the heart being easily fatigued and apt to worry without cause. If you have the least suspicion that your heart is weak, study your symptoms and the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and the great heart and blood tonic, without a day's delay.

election for the whole county of Scott (including Georgetown) upon the local option question, was heard by Judge Stout, and the following is his decision:

Scott Circuit Court,
G. H. Nunnelly, &c., Pliffs,
vs. Judgment,
J. J. Yates, as Judge of the Scott County Court, Defendants.

This cause coming on for hearing on the motion of plaintiff made on the third day of this term of court, and the court being sufficiently advised, it was adjudged that the demurrer to plaintiff's petition is overruled; it is further adjudged that the demurrer of plaintiff to the answer of defendant is sustained.

It is now adjudged that J. J. Yates, as Judge of the Scott County Court, be and he is hereby ordered and commanded to enter an order on the order book of Scott County Court directing the sheriff of Scott County, Ky., to open a poll in each and all of the voting precincts of said county, including the voting precincts of the city of Georgetown, on the 8th day of December, 1906, to take the sense of the legal voters of Scott County, Kentucky, who are qualified to vote at elections for county officers on the proposition whether or not spirituous, vinous, malt, or other intoxicating liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned therein, this law and prohibition to apply to drug-gists.

It is further adjudged that so much of plaintiff's petition asking for a special registration on the 30th day of November, 1906, denied, it being in the discretion of the Judge of the County Court to fix the day of such special registration at a date not later than five days before the 8th day of December, 1906.

Both sides were claiming that they had won, but when this decision is read, it is seen that he grants the mandamus for the election, but does not require Judge Yates to call a special registration at my set time.

SPRINKLING CART BROKEN DOWN.

On Wednesday morning, as the sprinkling cart was going up Broadway by the railroad depot the left hind wheel caught between the rails of the switch and the wheel was crushed down.

AN OUTRAGE.

On Saturday afternoon, as the F. & C. passenger train, en route to Paris, was crossing the C. S. R. B. at Georgetown, two youths were passing along evidently hunting with shotguns, when one of them, deliberately drew up his gun and fired at the passing train, one of the balls striking Capt. Taylor Carter in the back of the head and bringing him to his knees.

Capt. Carter was unlocking the door of an empty coach, which was being taken to Paris for the excursion over the L. & N. on Sunday, and was alone.

As soon as Capt. W. M. Petty, conductor on the F. & C., learned of the matter (he being in another part of the train), he telegraphed back to have the rascals arrested, but, so far, they have escaped arrest.

This character of outrage is getting too prevalent and should be stopped.

We are glad to say that Capt. Carter was not seriously hurt, no thanks, however, to the young ruffians who are guilty of the outrage.

CORRECTION.

In our notice of the accidental killing of Mr. Henry M. Ledgeridge, we were led to make an erroneous statement, as to his being out hunting on Sunday.

The fact is, that Mr. Ledgeridge never would go hunting on Sunday, but was simply taking exercise, by walking over the hills, being employed closely during the week, and accidentally met the boys who were hunting. He told them that he would not go, but would return home.

We deem it but right to make this statement in justice to our young friend.

Nature's Way Is Best.

The function strengthening and disease fighting plan of the animal kingdom and the cause of disease as surmised by Dr. Thoreau, is following after Nature's plan of restoring health.

Nature's plan of treatment is extracts from native medicinal roots prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time, and money, and the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in just the right proportions.

Used as ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Great American Discovery, Black Root bark, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and Some root, specially exert their influence in cases of lung, bronchial and other troubles.

“Dioscorea” is therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic coughs, catarrh and rheumatism.

These native roots also have the strongest possible endorsement from the leading medical writers, of all the several schools of practice, for the control and cure of all diseases.

Dr. Pierce's “Dioscorea” is a safe, simple and a most valuable remedy in the medical profession. A request by postcard or letter, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., will bring a little bottle of extracts from eminent medical authorities endorsing the ingredients of his medicines, will bring a little book, “first aid,” in which you will find a full description of needing a good safe, reliable remedy of known composition for the cure of almost any chronic, or lingering malady.

Dr. Pierce's “Dioscorea” is a safe composition. One with “Pector” is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

One most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Great American School of Medical Adviser. A splendid 1000-page volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy may be had for 25 cents in one's stamping, to pay the cost of mailing only, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.

A WORLD-WIDE PROGRAM.

One of the most distinguishing features of Lyman H. Howe's always popular moving pictures which will be seen in Frankfort at Capital Theater in the near future, is their comprehensiveness. Mr. Howe does not confine himself to any one class of pictures. His scope is world wide, and he gathers his scenes from the uttermost parts of the globe and depicts incidents of the mighty ones of the world in a way that impresses all indelibly on the mind of every one. The program, therefore, is educational as well as diverting. The new program thoroughly covers the entire domain of present-day life at home and abroad. It subtly and unconsciously informs every one while it entertains.

KENTUCKY CROP REPORT.

Condition of Growing Crops, Prospects, Etc.

Office of Commissioner of Agriculture, Etc., Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 8, 1906.

Hubert Vreeland, Commissioner.

The month of September was very unfavorable for the preparation of ground for sowing wheat and oats and other fall work is retarded. Heavy and continuous rains have delayed the cutting of corn, as also injuring its quality, causing it to rot to some extent. Tobacco has suffered from excessive moisture and much of it which was housed has been damaged by house burning, while that remaining on the scaffold, or still green, reports indicate a poor quality and considerable loss in weight.

In the Burley District the estimated yield compared to 1905 is 90 per cent, while the estimate of that housed to October 1 is 77 per cent of the crop. In the Dark Tobacco District the estimate of yield compared with 1905 is 80 per cent, ad the figures show that the amount housed is 79 per cent of the crop. The yield of corn over the entire State, as compared with last year, is very gratifying, being 107 per cent, but some of it will be of inferior quality on account of lack of sunshine. Reports indicate that the acreage of ground prepared for wheat compared with 1905 is only 82 per cent. With favorable weather from now on there is time enough to increase the sowing of this crop materially. Fall pastures are the best known for years, and all stock is in good condition. Very little disease is reported among animals except in one or two counties where there is some complaint of hog cholera. Mules are bringing fancy prices. Sheep in good demand. Hogs scarcity.

There is a general complaint of

COLORED WOMAN 117 YEARS OLD DIES.

Aunt Jane Mitchell, a colored woman aged 117 years, who lived alone in an upstairs room, in Battle Alley, was so unfortunate as to have her clothing catch fire, on Monday. The other inhabitants of the house did not know that she was on fire until the smoke came pouring out of the window of her room. When they went there, they found the old woman very badly burned. She lingered until 4 o'clock on Thursday morning, when she passed away.

The old woman was the widow of Caleb Mitchell, who died several years ago. The Louisville Times and State Journal both printed pictures of the man and stated that he lived here, when in fact he had been dead several years.

These old people were formerly slaves of Col. W. E. Hunt, of Greenville, Miss., and the family substantiate the fact that they were each over 100 years of age, and that they had been faithful servants in the Hunt family up to the taking effect of the emancipation proclamation. Aunt Jane was considerably older than her husband.

DELIGHTFUL LUNCH.

The Philanthropic Class of Young Ladies of the First Baptist Church served a delightful lunch in the old Chapel, in the rear of the church, on Thursday night. It was a delightful affair, all the delicacies of the season being served by the thirty-five handsome young ladies, who are members of the class.

There was quite a good crowd who took their supper with these dainty girls, and we are glad to say that a handsome sum was realized for the building fund of the church.

HANDED DOWN.

The cheerful idiot smiled at the landlady.

"Did I understand you to say, madam, that your grandfather was one of the early surveyors who laid out this noble city?"

"Yes, indeed," the good lady replied. "My grandfather drove his stakes over all this section." "It was thoughtful of him," said the idiot as he sawed desperately at his bit of porterhouse, it was very thoughtful of him to want to hand down the stakes."

And he stopped trying to cut his particular steak and sank back exhausted.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A TASTE FOR DOGS.

Mark Twain, apropos of Decoration Day, talked of war and of the hardships and privations of sieges.

"A Frenchman," he said, "called one day on a lady who had two dogs. They were ugly little brutes, and, when they came near him, the man pushed them out of the way with his foot."

"I perceive, sir," said the lady coldly, "that you are not very fond of dogs."

The man started in surprise. "I not fond of dogs?" he exclaimed. "Why, madam, I ate more than twenty of them during the siege of Paris!"

Mr. Kyle was a jeweler by profession and came to this city about a year ago, from Mansfield, Ohio, to accept a position at Selbert's jewelry establishment.

He was an industrious and upright young man, jolly and full of fun. He had only been sick a week, but, owing to some heart trouble, the physicians, Drs. Ely, Reynolds and Barr, were unable to undertake an operation, and other remedies proved ineffectual.

He was a member of the Masonic fraternity in Ohio, and his brethren of that order attended to him while confined to his bed and looked after the remains.

The accident was a very unfortunate one, as Mr. Morrison has a big lot of work on hand.

SOMETHING NEW.

Keep the bowels open when you have a cold and use a good remedy to allay the inflammation of the mucous membranes. The best is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It contains no opiates, moves the bowels, drives out the cold. It is not now necessary to take a purgative followed by something to relieve inflammation and stop the tickling and coughing. These qualities are now combined for the first time in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

Interesting Notes of Notable Attractions Which Come to Capital Theatre This Season.

A false statement regarding the intentions of the Independent managers in New Orleans was given considerable publicity in certain papers last week. The article declared that they gave up the Lyric Theatre in the Louisiana metropolis and surrendered the city. The fact is the Lyric Theatre is entirely inadequate for the first-class attractions of the Messrs. Shubert and they are now building a new theatre in New Orleans to be called the Shubert Theatre which will be by far the handsomest play house in that city. It will be thrown open to the public early in October. Houses added to the Independent circuit last week were the Nelson Theatre, Springfield, Mass.; the Providence Opera House, Providence, R. I., and the Grand Opera House, London, Ont.

James T. Powers will play the part of a British soldier in the Shubert's mammoth production of the English musical comedy "The Blue Moon." The role has been revised from the original to the Mr. Powers' eccentric style of humor.

Louis Harrison as well as Louise Gunning will be featured in the Shubert's beautiful presentation of the tuneful English-French musical comedy, "Veronique," which opens at the Lyric Theatre, Philadelphia, September 1. Andre Message's music is admirably suited to Miss Gunning's splendid voice.

Guy Standing's debut as a star under direction of the Messrs. Shubert will be made in a strong comedy drama entitled, "A Society Policeman." The play will be produced under the stage supervision of Henry Miller.

Margaret Anglin, previous to the opening of her new play, "The Great Divide," at the Princess Theatre, New York, on October 1, will visit southern Arizona in search of "local color" and properties for the production. One act of "The Great Divide" represents a cactus ranch, and another the "roof of the world" in the Cordillera Mountains.

"Lady Madcap," the highly successful George Edward's musical comedy to be given by the Shuberts next month, is one of the few plays of the kind from London that needs very little rewriting to make it suit American demands. "Lady Madcap" is said to be particularly rich in humor.

Lena Ashwell will play "The Shulamite" at the Savoy Theatre, London, up to the very day she sails for America to tour in that sensational drama under management of the Messrs. Shubert. There is no doubt "The Shulamite" could remain in London all the coming season, so great has been its hit, but the American engagement will not permit.

Julia Marlowe will return from Europe within the next two weeks to begin preparations for her tour with E. H. Sothern over the Shubert circuit. She and Mr. Sothern will have the most extensive repertoire of their careers next season.

Virginia Harned is in Paris securing gowns for use in her production of "The Girl In Waiting." In this drama will be seen one of the most brilliant displays of the ACCIDENTALLY SHOT ON SUNDAY.

Mr. Buford Willis, son of Mr. Kit Willis, was out hunting on Sunday last, down the river below the O. F. C. distillery, when he was accidentally shot in the left hand and arm, inflicting very serious injuries.

Dr. C. A. Fish was called and rendered necessary surgical attention. He hopes to save the hand. The young man is about 25 or 26 years of age.

The new Pure Food and Drug Law will mark it on the label of every Cough Cure containing Opium, Chloroform, or any other stupefying or poisonous drug. But it passes Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure as made for twenty years, entirely free. Dr. Shoop all along has bitterly opposed the use of all opiates or narcotics. Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is absolutely safe even for the youngest babe—and it cures, it does not simply suppress. Get a safe and reliable Cough Cure, by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's. Let the law be your protection. We cheerfully recommend and sell it. All dealers.
